Homework:
Homework assignments will count for 10% of your final grade in the course. The lowest homework grade will be dropped. These homework assignments are meant to prepare you for the examinations. It is therefore essential that you try to do them all!

Late Homework Policy:
NO LATE homework will be accepted.

Grade Policy:
Homework 10%, Midterm1 25%, Midterm2 25%, Final 40%.

Exam Dates:
Midterm1 (tentative): Wednesday Feb. 22\(^{\text{nd}}\), during class time, in Harriman 112.
Midterm2 (tentative): Wednesday Mar. 29\(^{\text{th}}\), during class time, in Harriman 112.
Final: Wednesday May 10\(^{\text{th}}\)

Cheating Policy:
Cheating, to any degree, will result in an automatic failure of the course. Furthermore, a letter will be added to your permanent file with the University. Your best bet is to work hard for the course and make use of office hours. I welcome all your questions and will be willing to help as much as I can. Your attendance and interest in the course will be reflected in your final grade.

There are no excuses – and really no reasons – for cheating.

Remember: your instructor and your TAs are here to help you with any difficulties you may encounter over the course of the semester.

Disability Policy:
If you have a physical, psychological, medical or learning disability that may impact your course work, please contact Disability Support Services, ECC (Educational Communications Center) Building, Room 128, (631) 632-6748. They will determine with you what accommodations are necessary and appropriate. All information and documentation is confidential. Students who require assistance during emergency evacuation are encouraged to discuss their needs with their professors and Disability Support Services.
